

Direct proportion

Exit ticket

Name _____

- 1 A recipe for 3 people uses 210 g of pasta.
How much pasta is needed for 9 people?

- 2 6 notebooks cost £7.20. How much do 5
notebooks cost?

- 3 A cleaner charges £24 for 2 hours and £40 for 4 hours.
Is the charge directly proportional to the time? Explain.

The Maths Habit

Direct proportion

Exit ticket

Name _____

- 1 A recipe for 3 people uses 210 g of pasta.
How much pasta is needed for 9 people?

- 2 6 notebooks cost £7.20. How much do 5
notebooks cost?

- 3 A cleaner charges £24 for 2 hours and £40 for 4 hours.
Is the charge directly proportional to the time? Explain.

The Maths Habit

Direct proportion

Exit ticket

Name _____

- 1 A recipe for 3 people uses 210 g of pasta.
How much pasta is needed for 9 people?

- 2 6 notebooks cost £7.20. How much do 5
notebooks cost?

- 3 A cleaner charges £24 for 2 hours and £40 for 4 hours.
Is the charge directly proportional to the time? Explain.

The Maths Habit

Direct proportion

Exit ticket

Name _____

- 1 A recipe for 3 people uses 210 g of pasta.
How much pasta is needed for 9 people?

- 2 6 notebooks cost £7.20. How much do 5
notebooks cost?

- 3 A cleaner charges £24 for 2 hours and £40 for 4 hours.
Is the charge directly proportional to the time? Explain.

The Maths Habit

Direct proportion

Exit ticket

Name _____

- 1 A recipe for 3 people uses 210 g of pasta.
How much pasta is needed for 9 people?

- 2 6 notebooks cost £7.20. How much do 5
notebooks cost?

- 3 A cleaner charges £24 for 2 hours and £40 for 4 hours.
Is the charge directly proportional to the time? Explain.

The Maths Habit

Direct proportion

Exit ticket

Name _____

- 1 A recipe for 3 people uses 210 g of pasta.
How much pasta is needed for 9 people?

- 2 6 notebooks cost £7.20. How much do 5
notebooks cost?

- 3 A cleaner charges £24 for 2 hours and £40 for 4 hours.
Is the charge directly proportional to the time? Explain.

The Maths Habit